A Family Journey— The Life of Riley

VOLUME 4, ISSUE 5

JUNE 5, 2009

Impartation—Leadership Training

We will staff and take an amazing three-week seminar in July—"Impartation: Great Commission Leadership." The event will be led by Darlene Cunningham, co-founder of Youth With A Mission, and David Hamilton, U of N Vice President for Strategic Innovation. Guest speakers will include Loren Cunningham (YWAM), Mark Anderson (Call2All), Avery Willis (International Orality Network and former Southern Baptist IMB officer) and other international mission leaders.

It is open to any Christian interested in missions and if you'd like more information about how to participate, please let us know!

We are excited to attend this seminar as well as serve it by being on staff. There could not be a better way to grow in our understanding of missions and biblical leadership than by serving as staff at a mission leadership conference.

The conference will include the following teachings:

- Embracing Bible standards for character and conduct of a leader—personal, family, ministry
- Living a lifestyle of integrated beliefs/practice
- Communicating cross-culturally; resolving conflicts; addressing issues of moral accountability
- Persevering: How to run to complete the race
- Becoming a "talent spotter" who champions others in their Great Commission call

We will also focus on the global priorities of today's mission movement:

- How to reach the major UUPGs (unengaged, unreached people groups)
- How to employ appropriate communication methods for oral learners
- How to engage with the global prayer movement
- How to see an explosion of evangelism and church planting movements
- How to have an integrated approach to transform every sphere in every nation

Tanner Riley Lands His First Production

Last Thursday we were sitting at dinner on the U of N campus. The eating area is an open air collection of tables where you will find 100s of people eating together from dozens of nations. One day I found myself eating lunch one day with Alex from Ghana, Nigel from Papua New Guinea, and Masi from Fiji.

Anyway, we were having dinner when Melissa Fenton from Australia joined us. She told us the local community theater was taking auditions that evening for a kids' production of the musical, Alice in Wonderland. Tryouts were to begin in half an hour. Tara and the kids drove to the theater immediately.

Our kids were numbers 120, 121, and 122 out of 123 auditions! The next morning we found out Tanner snagged a part. They have three weeks of practices to prepare for six days of performance! Tanner is a Royal Cardsman and a Walking Fish. He sings and dances in 6 of the 8 acts and has a small speaking role.

We see this as a wonderful opportunity for Tanner and an excellent way to reach out to the community. We can't wait to see how many families we will meet through this next month. During U of N staff meeting today the entire staff prayed for Tanner—that he will impact the show and community for God's glory.

A Way for You to Serve in Kona

The University of the Nations invites anyone to come serve the mission as a "Mission Builder." Mission Builders are given free room and board in exchange for working until 3 p.m. Monday through Friday on campus.

Mission Builders have played a major role in making the U of N Kona campus what it is today.

They serve the Kona campus in many ways, assisting with everything from carpentry and maintenance to food services, grounds-keeping and secretarial work. Many of these wonderful volunteers come year after year because they have found it is a challenging and spiritually refreshing experience -- and a great way to make new friends from around the world.

If you're between the ages of 18 and 80, in good health, and able to volunteer 30 days to three months of your time, come to Hawaii and become a Mission Builder. Volunteers work ~40 hours a week. Youth groups can also come for shorter periods as a working vacation—working 1/2 time.
